Nordisk Skibsrederforening
(Nordisk Defence Club)

Expert legal advice for shipowners and the offshore industry

Nordisk Transaction and Consultancy Services

Nordisk Skibsrederforening (Nordisk Defence Club) established in 1889 is a leading defence club with 2,500 vessels entered. However, for generations Nordisk's lawyers have provided support to members far beyond the scope of ordinary FD&D cover.

Today we offer legal services covering the full spectrum of the shipping and offshore maritime industries from our offices in Oslo and Singapore:

- Negotiating contracts, including sale and purchase of ships and rigs, sale/leaseback transactions, charter parties, shipbuilding contracts and FPSO and FSRU contracts
- Restructuring and refinancing
- Bank and bond financing
- Competition law and pools
- Compliance and regulatory issues
- Ports and public law

Nordisk's consultancy and transaction team provides:

- Seasoned strategic advice
- Expert contract negotiators with a pragmatic Scandinavian approach
- Advice on both Norwegian and English law
- Unrivalled experience in helping to avoid disagreements and in dispute resolution
- Competitive fees

Experience Overview

Our expert lawyers in Oslo and Singapore provide seamless legal support to our members and clients wherever they are located or operating.

The following are examples of recent matters where Nordisk's consultancy and transactions team has assisted:

- Shipbuilding contracts for a series of battery hybrid ferries
- Sale/leaseback transactions under Norwegian and English law
- Sale of vessels to green recycling, and developing Nordisk Responsible Ship Recycling Clauses 2020
- Tenders and negotiations for offshore support vessels all over the world, with particular experience in the North Sea, West Africa, Brazil and Australia
- Shipbuilding contracts for battery hybrid SOVs for the wind industry
- A series of W2W (walk to work) charters
- Conversion contracts for ro/ro vessels

We have used Nordisk's transactions team extensively. In our experience Nordisk provides an unrivalled combination of efficiency, commercial understanding and legal skills.
